Yoshiko Chuma | π = 3.14...Dead End, Hey! All Women!

A flowing resistance activity with a delicate, powerful monologue through dance. This project launched on President's Day at La MaMa.

Rady Nget began his dance training in 1999, specializing in the monkey role of Lakhaon Kaol, the Cambodian classical male masked dance form. As a classical dancer, he has toured to Europe and throughout Asia, and as a contemporary dancer has performed in numerous works.

Orlando Zane Hunter, Jr & Ricardo Valentine are Brother(hood) Dance! -- an interdisciplinary duo that seeks to inform its audiences on the socio-political and environmental injustices from a global perspective, bringing clarity to the same-gender-loving African-American experience in the 21st century.
