The CoLab Split Bill Evening is an evening length show choreographed by Barnard College and Columbia University seniors Nadia Halim and Kosta Karakashyan.

Kosta Karakashyan's Desire Chromatic is a multimedia dance theatre work, investigating the places we seek fulfilment through 7 vignettes which incorporate original music by Jude Icarus, text by Hannah Story Brown and projection design by Sophie Visscher-Lubiniski.

Nadia Halim's work of body focuses on the lived experience of the performing self within the liminal spaces of changing states through dance, film and spoken word.

Join us for light refreshments and a night of exploratory performance. Tickets are FREE, but space is limited. Reserve your spot here: <https://artsinitiative.columbia.edu/events/colab-split-bill-evening>

Supported in part by the Arts Initiative at Columbia University.

Supported by the Movement Lab through the inaugural Student Artist-in-Residence Program.
