Fill your spring break with dance, music, and art! The School at the Mark Morris Dance Center's multi-disciplinary camp for all levels provides a 3-hour block of time daily with activities ranging from dance with live music to visual art. Students will explore a variety of dance styles and techniques, including ballet, modern, hip-hop, jazz, West African, and more. Campers will also learn about Mark Morris' choreography and use concepts from it to create their own dances.

For all levels, with and without disabilities.
