Bring the whole family on July 24th for an evening of celebration of Mexican music and dance. We kick off the day with our 6pm performance of Calpulli Community- featuring live music and the Calpulli Community students. At 7pm Calpulli Mexican Dance Company will fill your senses with their joyous dance and music. At 8pm, we end the day with a Fiesta filled with live music from special guest, Radio Jarocho. Get your dancing shoes ready for this fun-filled event!

Queens Theatre's new outdoor summer stage is just yards away from their facilities in Flushing Meadows Corona Park. Tickets are free but reservations are required.

The series highlights the artistic, educational, and community connections of the Queens-based dance company. The company of dancers and musicians will perform selections from various productions previously premiered at sold-out seasons at Queens Theatre. It will also compliment a community student recital with an educationally-focused performance by the company. Guest artist, Radio Jarocho, will end the evenings events with a Fiesta for all to enjoy!
