A duet that feels like a solo. A solo that feels like a duet.
 Curated by CW.

Performers Eva Karczag & Vicky Shick return to Sundays on Broadway to present a re-working of their duet, "your blue is my purple." They are longtime colleagues dating back to the 1980's in the Trisha Brown Company. To this day, Shick and Karczag are often mistaken for each other on the street and even on stage. In this duet, they continue to investigate their curiosities, similarities and differences. This work was created (in part) during the Tisch Summer Residency Festival at New York University.

Cathy Weis will perform Jury Duty. As she moves onstage, Weis tells stories about being called for jury duty and describes what it's like for her to move through the world. A live image of Weis is projected behind her, adding a new layer of meaning to her musings.
