Join us for an Indonesian-style warm-up to loosen your joints and muscles. We will then dive into the West Sumatran Dance Style! Starting with the basic body bend posture (kudakuda), hand movements, steps and head movements; followed by basic choreography from West Sumatran dances. Amalia Suryani and Indonesian folk dance are inseparable. In 2006, she founded Saung Budaya, a New York-based dance group composed of Indonesian diaspora students and young professionals that have a mission to educate the young Indonesian diaspora about their roots through culture. Over the last 15 years, they have performed widely, from Lincoln Center to inside/out at Jacob's Pillow. Under Amalia's direction, Saung Budaya developed not only to educate, but also to share their passion for Indonesian culture with our global community through dance, music, language and storytelling.
