The American Tap Dance Foundation's Tap Teacher Training Program provides the essential skills to teach rhythm tap to children, teens and adults. This comprehensive curriculum gives a solid and progressive foundation for beginning through advanced level tap dance teaching.

July 2016 Training includes:

45+ hours of class time with expert faculty

Rhythm tap technique

Copasetic Canon repertory

Rhythm tap pedagogy

Jazz Music concepts

Tap composition and improvisation

Tap history

Mentored independent work

Certificate issued by the American Tap Dance Foundation

Scholarships are available

The ATDF Tap Teacher Training Certificate Program offers an approach to teaching rhythm tap based in the classic tap repertory of the Copasetics, the famed ensemble of rhythm tap stars. Combined with the artistic vision and teachings of Brenda Bufalino, the Copasetic Canon Curriculum has been adapted into a clear and technically solid approach to teaching youth, teen and adult students at the American Tap Dance Center in New York. The Copasetic Canon Curriculum is now available to all tap teachers--and to advanced tap dancers who want to gain teaching skills.

Our graduates rave:

"Amazing amount of useful information"

"I felt empowered, validated and on the right track"

"The best tap dance week of my life"

"Gave me enough material to last years . . . great practical info"
"Terrific, imaginative-tons of brilliant ideas"

July 17-24, 2016 at the American Tap Dance Center, New York City.
