Join us for our world premiere of "The Alchemist" a live dance story about changing a negative thought pattern into a positive thought pattern to change one's reality and make one's dreams come true. Scientists consider the 5 elements as primary "energies". Each element represents different energies:

Water--> "Sadness" or "Joy"

Fire--> "Anger" or "Passion"

Earth--> "Depression" or "Vitality"

Air--> "Fear" or "Courage"

Space/Ether--> thoughts/feelings

This shows for us all to take accountability for our thoughts and feelings and how it is affecting our own lives. We hope everyone will be inspired to look within at their own impurities and purify them into pure Gold. Welcome to The Alchemist! Use code DANCENYC to receive a discount!
