New York City Children's Theater's The Hula Hoopin' Queen is a joyful 50 minute performance for young audiences ages 5 and up.

Set on a vibrant Harlem block, the story follows 10-year old Kameeka as she chases her dream of becoming the Hula Hoopin' Queen of 139th Street. When preparations for Miz Adline's birthday shift her plans, Kameeka discovers that caring for family and community can be the greatest victory of all.

Filled with catchy music, Harlem pride, and a grand hula-hooping finale, this lively production celebrates family, friendship, and finding creative ways to shine.
