"The Unhidden" is Moving On's inaugural full length show on the beautiful North Shore of Long Island.

Blurring the lines between dance, visual art, and puppetry, this spectacle is great for an evening out, even for those never having appreciated dance before.

This immersive event brings it's audience into another cosmos... a world within a world... our own unseen treasures of our beautiful earth. "...I want more people to stop and smell the earth around them, become it, and do better..." - Nicole Loizides (Director)

The Unhidden is great for families though not recommended for children under the age of 10.

The evening begins with a complimentary cocktail or mocktail while amongst a small museum of moving art. After being ushered down our second exhibit, you'll be seated and enchanted by multiple performances weaving together the 5 Elements through dance, music, puppetry, and lighting.

Combined with your cocktail it will tickle all of your senses.
