

Friday, October 13, 2017

The World of Midori Kashiwagi

Company: Midori Kashiwagi

Venue: Florence Gould Hall

Location: New York, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Encounter the elegant and refined art form of Nihon Buyo, traditional Japanese dance, led by master dancer Midori Kashiwagi performs dramatic love story, "The Love Suicide at Sonezaki", one of the Japanese historical tale expresses love and betrayal. This story has been playing on Kabuki and Japanese traditional puppet play since three hundred years ago. Midori Kashiwagi completes this sorrowful tale combining the traditional Japanese dance with jazz dance and modern dance with a puppet master Hiroshi Hori and a talented famous contemporary dancer Yu Yamamoto. Midori Kashiwagi also plays "Bolero" the solo dance performance, and she has choreographed and directed for this magnificent show.

Midori Kashiwagi
55 East 59th Street
New York, NY, 10022
(212) 355-6160
<http://www.ticketmaster.com/event/030052FAB6211FE2>

Schedule
October 13, 2017: 8:00pm

< back

previous listing • next listing