About the Company

Borne Dance Company is a team of collaborating artists led by New York based choreographers Kianna Moye and Katie Kilbourn. While the artistic nuances of the two choreographers are distinct from one another, they share a common goal of creating work that is communally driven. Moye and Kilbourn's collaboration began while studying dance at the University of the Arts, in Philadelphia, PA. Since graduating in 2013, they have continued to produce, create, and explore their art in New York City.

In an effort to share a diverse offering of art forms with a wide range of audience of audience members, Borne offers donation based shows that incorporate dance, music, and media art. Through artistic expression, Borne aims to both raise awareness and educate their audience about different social, psychological, and communal issues.
