"This Body /re/turns" adapts work made for the screen during lockdown by Sara Roer and Diane Tomasi for an in-person show in Prospect Park.

The performance is approximately 1 hour in length.

Saturday October 16th, 2021 at 3pm EST

Saturday October 16th, 2021 at 5pm EST

Tickets are free or by donation.

Location and accessibility notes:

- Audience should enter the park at 15th street and Prospect Park West, across from Nighthawk Cinema, and up the path on the right-hand side of the entrance.
- There is a cut curb entrance to a paved path that audience will travel to view the performance. This path is accessible for mobility devices.
- There is one bench along the path for the performance, but several extra chairs will be available for those who need them. If you know you will need seating, please email ThisBodyLives@gmail.com at least 24 hours in advance
- The exit path does NOT have a cut curb. The walk back to 15th street from there is .2 miles.

Covid notes:

- There is not a vaccination requirement for this performance as it will be completely outdoors.
- Performers will not be masked for the whole show. Audience are encouraged to stay at least 6 feet away from performers.
- Audience guides/helpers will be masked for the duration of their interaction with audience.
- Physical distancing from other audience cannot be guaranteed, nor can vaccination status. Please mask at your discretion.
