Merging contemporary dance with theater, 277DanceProject creates a stylized, witty, comic and at times poignant piece exploring relationship, intangible expectations, desire and personal myth. Our Absurdist landscape is filled with midnight love affairs, beauty pageants, a French cafe, a woman who gets everything she's ever wanted, a couple who can not say goodbye, and a man who worries about the end of the world. Stuck in a state of limbo, we are given the chance to play out our secret fantasies or to repeat moments from past relationships in the hopes that we will finally get exactly what we want.
