Brett Love

"Thoughts & Prayers" is a dance-theatre-concerto from Director Lauren Hlubny and Composer Thomas Giles. It is equal parts music, movement and theatre with a palpable activist heart. Through a gripping exploration of America's relationship with tragedy, catastrophe, and loss, this thought-provoking world premiere aims to harness the power of hope, individual action, and a call for change. Following each show, audience members and community activists are invited to discuss next steps to create change.
