Led by Broadway stars Charlotte d'Amboise and Terrence Mann, this two-week musical theater workshop is designed to encourage creativity, instill focus and concentration, and foster confidence in music, dance and acting. Students will work with top industry professionals as they explore all aspects of musical theater performance including audition techniques, song interpretation, scene study, dance techniques and master classes. Two weeks spent immersed in study and rehearsal from 10 AM - 6 PM each day will culminate in one final, incredible performance. For more information on Triple Arts, visit triplearts.com.
