Valentina Kozlova announces the NY premiere performance of her Studio Company in an evening of classical and contemporary ballets. The young dancers will be joined by guests Albert Davydov and France's Clement Guillaume, a gold medalist at the 2017 Kozlova International Ballet Competition. The program will include excerpts from the classics, including a dance scene choreographed by Petipa for the Glinka opera "Ruslan and Lyudmilla," staged by Kozlova. There will also be contemporary works, highlighted by Kozlova's ballet "Overcome," created after 9/11 to Gospel music.
