Virtual DELving into Dance History Mini Workshop: Asian American Women in Dance: Yuriko

Saturday, April 30 | 10am-1pm Eastern | Facilitated by Ann Biddle and Felice Santorelli | Open to all levels | $20; financial assistance available | Online via Zoom | For more information or questions, please email community@jacobspillow.org.

Join Ann Biddle (Director of DEL at Jacob's Pillow) and Felice Santorelli (DEL Facilitator) to celebrate women's voices in dance history with an exploration of the life and work of Yuriko Kikuchi, whose stage name was Yuriko, and who was a principal dancer in Martha Graham's company from the 1940s to 1967. Yuriko was instrumental in preserving the Graham legacy through her extensive teaching and re-staging of many iconic Graham works.

Blakeley White-McGuire, former principal dancer in the Martha Graham Company, will join us as a guest artist to share observations from her recently published book, The Martha Graham Dance Company House of the Pelvic Truth. In this embodied and interactive workshop, participants will immerse themselves in the DELving into Dance History model and explore the unique artistic vision and choreographic process of this significant Asian American dance artist.
