Virtual Pathways Dance Festival 2020 (VPDF) will be a virtual dance festival featuring cutting-edge archived dances, including works by Doug Varone & Dancers, Helen Pickett, Yu Dance Theatre, and Complexions Contemporary Ballet. VPDF 2020 is produced by Alyssandra Katherine Dance (AKD), Co-Presented by ODC Theater online.

The roster will feature works spanning genres, highlighting the breadth and diversity of dance styles in a new digital format. The mission of Virtual Pathways Dance Festival is to bring visibility to dance companies and dance producers nationally, giving chosen companies an opportunity to showcase work to new audiences and widen their reach at no cost. We seek to use this festival as a platform to provide financial support to contributing artists during the COVID-19 Pandemic and support innovative works through monetary donations and ticket sales. To help dance artists across the nation, please consider buying a ticket today as 100% of the proceeds goes towards supporting the artists in the festival and ODC.

Virtual Pathways Dance Festival is produced by 3 formidable female choreographers Marika Brussel, Carly Lave, and Alyssandra Wu. Brussel is a ballet choreographer who reshapes contemporary narratives, bringing ballet into the 21st Century. Lave is a contemporary choreographer whose work seeks to question the self through visceral immersive performance. Wu is a freelance choreographer whose work explores issues dealing with East Asian identity and mental illness.
