Dancewave

Transforming lives through dance

Wavedances is an opportunity for dancers to learn and explore site-specific performance and interactive public connection. Led by Dancewave teaching artist Jessica Harris, workshops on May 22 & 29 from 5-7:30pm explore the history of site-specific performance, developing effective public performances, building choreography, and designing costumes.

Wavedances will culminate in two performances based on the learnings and product of the workshops:

June 1st Performance at Prospect Park

Wavedancers will perform at Prospect Park on June 1st from 11am-1pm: Starting at the Grand Army Plaza Farmer's Market, exiting the park at 3rd Street Playground, and finishing at Old Stone House.

June 8th Performance at GO! Grand Opening of the New Dancewave Center

Wavedances is being presented, in part, to build awareness of Dancewave's GO! Grand Opening event at the New Dancewave Center at 182 4th Ave on Saturday, June 8th. Participants will also perform during Dancewave's Grand Opening donor brunch from 10-11:30am.

Open to dancers ages 13 and up who have a foundation in dance and performance.
