Our one week Winter Intensive will offer advanced dancers a chance to deeply explore their bodies, develop creative techniques for making work, and introduce new facets of the performance process to create more three dimensional movers and makers.

Details:

Monday, December 15- Friday, December 19
10-4pm Daily
Mark Morris Dance Center

3 classes per day (Technique, Composition, and Advanced Performance Practices):

- Morning technique class taught by contemporary artists, including Alexandra Beller, Edward Rice, Darrin Wright, and others.
- Compositional Strategies, facilitated by Alexandra and the Company, will follow, where artists will be invited and guided to make material.
- Rotating series of master classes in topics like Viewpoints, Directing, Dramaturgy, and Partnering to help deepen both your performance and creative techniques.
