About the show itself:

We're All Immigrants is a multi-style dance show ( Hip Hop, Latin Styling, Contemporary, Bollywood, and fusion) utilizing styles that best represent each character.

The show is a narrative fusion piece about Immigration in America and its relationship to "The American Dream." Our story will be told through our main character Rosa who, while trying to pursue her dream in America to create a show of her own, has a close friend detained by immigration. What steps she takes to become involved and advocate for her friend will lead her down an even more fulfilling path than she would have imagined.

Special Thanks:

The creation of this work was supported (in part) by the Flamenco Vivo Carlota Santana Artist in Residence Exchange (AiRe).
