New York City based dance company mishiDance will perform an evening with mishiDance, a performance retrospective that will include 10 shorter, pre-existing works from the company's repertory and one world premiere. The mission of mishiDance is to engage and inspire audiences by bringing music to life through intricate, dynamic movement. Since its inception in 2010, mishiDance has performed in choreography showcases throughout New York City. This will be the company's first full evening of work.
