wall, floor, ceiling: composing in improvisation

with Johanna S. Meyer

January 7 – February 24

SAT 11am-1pm

MR@Eden's Expressway

Through years of choreographing and studying improvisation, my class explores compositional skills via improvisations in the goal of igniting our imaginations. Each class builds on a theme of allowing our bodies to find rhythm, timing and spatial awareness to create full and luscious dancing. We dance. We watch. We discuss.

Johanna S. Meyer is a choreographer. She has made work since the 1990s and graduated with an MFA in Dance from UIUC. She was certified in Pilates from the Greene Street Studio with Deborah Lessen in 1997. She has studied classical as well as many other Pilates approaches.
