Stepping Into Hope and Change

Thursday, April 7, 2011

A free career development conference for dancers

Our popular event is back with more information that will inspire you to pursue your next passionate career. Designed to address the changing economic climate for dancers, plenary speakers and break-out sessions will explore money management, career goals, careers in dance, personal statements, résumé writing, interview skills and job search strategies. This conference is also an excellent time to network with your peers, especially at our Wrap-up Party. Sessions will be moderated by Lauren Gordon, MSW, LCSW; Suzie Jary, MSW, LCSW, CP; and Paulette Fried, MSW, NCCC. We have an action-packed day in store for you. It is okay if you cannot attend the whole day, but you do need to register here.

Sessions and speakers: 10am-4:45pm
Complimentary Lunch: 1:15-2:00pm
Resource Fair: 1:45-2:45pm
Wrap-up Party: 5:00-7:00pm

Full conference schedule > Click here. Free of charge but space is limited.

Resource Fair

Are you interested in getting your pilates or yoga certification? How about going back to school or learning to teach ballroom dance? Are you looking for a career at a website, or a web design firm to market your talent? Representatives from these industries and more will be present at the Resource Fair. If there is one part of the day that you will not want to miss – this is it!
