July is Disability Pride Month in New York City! Join Dance/NYC in celebrating by sharing how you advance integrated and disability dance artistry, work made and performed by and with disabled dancers. Join the conversation on Instagram and Twitter, and create a temporary Facebook profile picture with our Disability. Dance. Artistry. frame. Don't forget to tag us and use the hashtag #DisabilityDanceArtistry.

Throughout July, we will be sharing NEW YORKERS FOR DANCE video statements by New Yorkers for Dance who are integrated and disability dance artistry creators, performers, advocates, educators, and audiences. Check out our new montage today, and stay tuned for releases all month long.

#DisabilityDanceArtistry

This activity is supported by Engaging Dance Audiences, administered by Dance/USA and made possible by the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation. Jody and John Arnhold are the lead funders of NEW YORKERS FOR DANCE.

The Disability. Dance. Artistry. initiative is made possible with founding and leadership support from the Stavros Niarchos Foundation, The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, Ford Foundation, Booth Ferris Foundation; Engaging Dance Audiences, administered by Dance/USA and made possible by the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation; Mertz Gilmore Foundation; and The Lucille Lortel Foundation. The project is also supported, in part, by the New York State Council on the Arts, with the support of Governor Andrew Cuomo and the New York State Legislature; the City of New York, Bill de Blasio, Mayor, and the New York City Council, Melissa Mark-Viverito, Speaker, through the Department of Cultural Affairs, Tom Finkelpearl, Commissioner; and the National Endowment for the Arts. Dance/NYC thanks the Mayor's Office for People with Disabilities, Victor Calise, Commissioner, and the initiative task force for their partnership.
