As an organization, Dance/NYC has been following the guidelines of the New York City government in response to the coronavirus. Dance/NYC has decided to abstain from hosting the Symposium as an in-person event.

That being said, Dance/NYC is happy to announce digital sessions for this year's 2020 Symposium. Sessions will take place via Facebook live and Zoom and include an array of artists and business experts addressing the needs of the dance workers and organizations in this unprecedented moment for our community.

Sessions are free and open to the public, and will include live closed-captioning and ASL interpretation. Content will be made available thereafter.
