About the Event

Redefining Practice | Afro-Latinidad and the NYC Dance Ecology

Dance/NYC, in partnership with Ballet Hispanico and the Caribbean Cultural Center African Diaspora Institute, is pleased to present Afro-Latinidad and the NYC Dance Ecology, part of the Redefining Practice series. This town hall highlights both the vibrancy and deep historical legacy of Afro-Latino/a/x/e identity and culture, while also acknowledging its invisibility and erasure in New York City dance. Led by scholars and dance practitioners, the event offers pathways for a redefined understanding of race and ethnicity, and challenges the categories and limitations often placed on the works and artistry of dance creatives who hold this multi-hyphenate identity.

About the Series

As the landscape for dance as professional practice, living ritual and technical production continues to evolve, Redefining Practice explores how artists and institutions are adapting, unlearning and innovating new ways of being in creation--and the many phases that creation takes-- to prioritise new learnings in racial justice, physical/emotional safety, and community care.
