Sanctuary Space:

Dance/NYC and RIOULT Dance Center declare Defining "Small-Budget" Dance Makers in a Changing Dance Ecology to be a Sanctuary space for the duration of the conference. This acts on Dance/NYC's commitment to justice, equity, and inclusion. In declaring a sanctuary conference, Dance/NYC and RIOULT Dance Center commit to:

- Inviting participation in art, culture, and education in a place free of fear.
- Providing a safe space for all - a space free of discrimination; a space where people will not be mistreated because of their race, ethnicity, gender or gender expression, immigration status, sexual orientation, disability, or religious faith (or lack thereof).
- Protect any information on immigration status of all members, staff, artists, and visitors in any way possible and to the best of our abilities.
- Participate in a training with Artspace Sanctuary to ensure that all staff are in accordance with the principles of the sanctuary movement.
