[\[MEMBER BLOG\] Justina: Remembering Denise at the Apollo](#)

7:00pm-Apollo Theater: Tonight I attended A Celebration of the Life of Denise Jefferson. The evening, which included performances and tributes, was a touching commemoration of a woman who was both my boss and my hero. Upon passing most people leave behind a memory - Denise left behind a legacy. ...

[\[JOURNAL\] Interview: Nora Chipaumire and the Bessie Awards](#)

15 minutes with Nora Chipaumire With two Bessie Awards already under her belt (one in 2007 for her performance with Urban Bush Women, the other in 2008 for her choreographic work Chimurenga), Nora Chipaumire could be deemed an expert on groundbreaking dance in New York City. During a quiet morning of her current residency at the University of Minnesota, she was kind enough to share a few words concerning...

[\[JOURNAL\] Nancy Umanoff, Executive Director of Mark Morris Dance Group](#)

AB: The Mark Morris Dance Group spent 1989-1991 as the resident company of the Theatre de la Monnaie in Brussels. Would you ever consider moving the company again? NU: In 1987 Mark Morris was invited to become the Director of Dance at the Theatre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels. Several American choreographers have been given the opportunity to move to Europe to take over an existing company or to create a new one but none had relocated their entire company. In an unprecedented move, the Mark Morris Dance Group -dancers and staff- moved to Belgium in 1988. It was truly an offer we couldn't refuse - full year salaries, health insurance, vacation pay, a full time masseuse and production team, access to the beautiful baroque national opera house (and any other Belgian theater of our choosing), live music (all of the time) provided by the Monnaie orchestra and chorus, virtually unlimited production budgets and a home with numerous studios. ...
