Last call for Choreographers for Showings on May 11 or May 18!

Do you have work you recently created or are still in the process of making and want feedback? We have an intimate, bare-bones showing for you!

Jennifer Muller/The Works holds its HATCH Presenting Series each Fall and Spring, and our last TWO showings still have openings. This is an excellent opportunity to present you and your dancers in an informal, cost-free setting, and also to receive audience feedback through an audience/artist discussion.
