CoreDance Contemporary

Internship Description

CoreDance Contemporary is currently seeking creative and independent undergraduate or graduate students with arts management skills for a September 2015 through June 2016 administrative internship. Interns will have the opportunity to work closely with a non-profit dance company.

Intern will help support CDC's Artistic Director and artists as the company prepares for its Annual Spring Season in April. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to; residency, performance and grant research and submission; database input and management; assistance at special events; and general office support. Candidates must be detail oriented, very well organized and possess strong communication, writing and computer skills. Ideally, applicants should have an interest in dance.

All internships are unpaid and prospective applicants must be willing to commit for the entire season, September, 2015 through June, 2016.
