Deadline approaching: March 27, 2021

The 2021 Queensboro Dance Festival is a summer tour of performances and classes presenting Queens-based dances of diverse cultures & styles. This year's tour will be a hybrid of virtual engagements and on-site performances that will be livestreamed from various Queens locations. Locations are mainly outdoor venues and all events will enforce proper COVID protocols.

Overview:

- Professional level dance forms of any cultures and styles welcome
- Choreographer or dance company must be based in Queens to be eligible
- Tour Commitment: 4-7 bookings across virtual and on-site events total, attendance in at least 2 peer dance classes and/or professional development workshops (all free), and actively engaging with your fellow Queens dance participants throughout the tour.

Benefits include:

- Paid tour free
- Paid teaching opportunities
- Rehearsal space
- Professional development workshops
- Photo and video footage
- A valuable network of Queens dancers and resources
- An awesome experience of a summer in Queens!
