Jeny will help students take their Afro'Dance skills to the next level - Build your skills, style, and brand. In this workshop, attendees will learn choreography, focused on what's trending in Afro'Dance and why. We'll also focus on footwork and technique to understand and execute these African Street dance styles. We'll work together and perform in person!

Jeny BSG was inspired to dance at a young age, Jeny's two biggest inspirations are Missy Elliott and Ciara. At the age of 12 she started dancing Hip Hop, Dance Hall, and African dance. Jeny started her professional career in 2016 when she won Juste Debout, one of the biggest dance competitions. After her victory, Jeny began to gain popularity on social media and gained the eye and influence of celebrities like Missy Elliott, Ciara, Pink, Oprah Winfrey, Naomi Campbell, Ne-Yo, Kery Hilson and more. Now she touts more than 3 million followers across several platforms sharing her passion for Hip-Hop and Afro'Dance. Description text goes here
