An exclusive opportunity for the serious actor to experience casting sessions with a professional Feature Film and Television Casting Director, Todd's class sharpens and improves an actor's on-camera acting skills, starting with demystifying the audition process. Todd's extensive and impressive credits as a casting director in addition to his years teaching and coaching actors makes this class a must. Todd will coach you on the skills necessary to quickly and easily gather the information needed to give your best performance and prevent self-sabotage. This workshop is perfect for all actors looking to make the most out of every on-camera audition and pilot season by immediately applying Todd's tips and techniques. Covered in this workshop: audition sides (assigned and self-selected), delivering cold readings, general auditions and interviews, scene coaching and video playback.

Tuesdays 7:00 – 10:00 PM
