Venue: Jamaica Performing Arts Center (JPAC)

Location: Queens, NY

The Kingdom Dance Company will perform a tribal inspired African piece with elements of hip hop, modern and step. The audience will be immersed into the creative process by picking their own tribal identities and will be able to connect real world emotions with the fluidity of their own interpretation of movement! The Kingdom Dance Company will end the evening off with a group class bringing everyone together in sound by learning a step inspired piece and finally get to chat with the dancers and choreographers about the process of putting together performance pieces.
