Miz Jade is a Black, trans, queer drag performer, event host, and professional dancer. Known for her teaching, activism, and quick wit, she's bound to gag you and turn the party. Miz Jade has been described as fierce, sensual, sophisticated, and full of surprises. Miz Jade works with Drag Story Hour NYC, which fosters children's imagination while providing glamorous, positive, and unabashedly queer role models. She is extremely proud of her involvement with DSH NYC, as she is passionate about the program's message of acceptance and inclusivity. She is also the face of a national campaign called 'The Real Ms Information'. A collaborative effort with GMHC and FCB Health to motivate and educate LGBTQ+ people on the importance of being covid vaccinated. Miz Jade has been nominated for 'Best Dance Performer' at the Glam Awards. She was also nominated for 'Queen Of The Year' and 'Best Performer' at the Brooklyn Nightlife Awards.
