Celebrating the 10th Annual DTCB as a Live Virtual Event! Co-presented by Dance Magazine

October 16-18 & 23-25, 2020

Proud to be one of very few college dance fairs responding to the COVID-19 crisis, Dancewave has adapted its professional networking event virtually, providing a web-based platform for its College Fair, coveted Auditions, education panels, workshops and more. Join nearly 1000 attendees from across the world in our dynamic social distance event, and let DTCB be your guide on your college dance journey!

Dancewave brings a decade of trusted relationships with college representatives to support students in their college admissions and auditions process. With college campus visits currently delayed, DTCB gives students valuable facetime with faculty and students from up to 60 top schools, giving you the opportunity to share your talent and personality, and get your questions answered!

College registration open through August 31, student registration open through September 30. Visit dancewave.org/dtcb today to learn more, and be sure to check out our brand new event website, too: dtcb.dancewave.org.
