DISABILITY. DANCE. ARTISTRY. RESIDENCY PROGRAM

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Dance/NYC and its program partners Gibney and Spaceworks are pleased to invite you to apply for the Disability. Dance. Artistry. Residency Program, made possible by the generous support of the Craig H. Neilsen Foundation and the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs CreateNYC Disability Forward Fund. Through the Craig H. Neilsen Foundation, Dance/NYC will award residencies to up to six (6) dance artists with spinal cord injury (SCI) and/or dance ensembles working with artists with SCI. Through the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs CreateNYC Disability Forward Fund, Dance/NYC will open the residency opportunity to up to two (2) more disabled artists. The purpose of the residency program is to expand opportunities for dancers with SCI and other disabilities, and to advance accessibility and inclusion within the larger dance, residency, and presenting communities.

Inspired by a Craig H. Neilsen Foundation grant to the Vermont Studio Center to establish residencies for visual artists and writers with SCI, Dance/NYC's new program will advance the cultural ecosystem to expressly and equitably foster opportunities for disabled dance artists. It responds directly to recent research, Performing Disability. Dance. Artistry. (Dance.NYC/PerformingDDA18), which underscores the need and opportunity to engage residency centers in the professional development and training of disabled artists and to provide critical training to presenters, driving mentorship and shared learning among artists and presenters.

Residency Components

Please note that you can apply for only one of the following residency programs. Dance/NYC will prioritize self-identification by allowing applicants to choose which of the residency programs they are applying for. No artist will be required to identify their impairment or provide verification in the application.

Craig H. Neilsen Foundation Residencies

Individual dance artists with SCI and/or dance ensembles working with artists with SCI are invited to apply for six-month residencies for the period of March 15, 2019 to September 15, 2019. Residencies will be awarded to up to six (6) dance artists to support their creative process. These residencies will occur in New York City, but eligible applicants may be based outside of the metropolitan area.

The Craig H. Neilsen Foundation supports programs that enhance participation and independence for people living with SCI but does not designate funding to individuals. Prioritization for acceptance to the Disability. Dance. Artistry. Residency Program will be made at the sole discretion of Dance/NYC. According to the Craig H. Neilsen Foundation, the criteria for eligibility for the Residency Program is restricted to dance artists with SCI, i.e., individuals with neurological and functional impairment due to traumatic SCI, degenerative disease primary to the spinal cord (transverse myelitis) or damage to the spinal cord due to tumors and surgery. According to the Craig H. Neilsen Foundation, individuals with spinal dysfunction, paralysis or pain syndromes caused by other disorders are not eligible (e.g., multiple sclerosis, ALS, Chiari malformation and other developmental disorders, primary orthopedic disorders and peripheral nerve injury).

New York City Department of Cultural Affairs CreateNYC Disability Forward Fund Residencies

Disabled dance artists or integrated dance companies, regardless of disability, are invited to apply for three-month residencies for the period of March 15, 2019 to June 15, 2019. Artists must be based in New York City to apply for this residency.

Each of the program participants will receive:

- An honorarium of $5,000 to be used at the discretion of the participant;
- If necessary, additional stipend of $1,000 for personal care assistant(s);
- Up to 60 hours of rehearsal time at one of the participating centers over the 6-month period, to be coordinated between resident dance artist and participating venue;
- 10-class card for up to 3 artists per participant at Gibney lasting 90 days;
- Administrative office space with desk and light storage at Gibney;
- If desired, private or public studio showing, open rehearsal, and/or public talk; and
- In-kind marketing, communications, and outreach for participants of up to 4 weeks through Dance/NYC platforms (Dance.NYC)

To be eligible, applicants must:

- Identify as a dance artist with SCI (as defined by the Craig H. Neilsen Foundation) and/or dance ensemble working with artists with SCI, or a disabled dance artist or integrated dance company; and
- Provide a copy of their U.S. IRS Determination letter, which proves the entity's 501(c)(3) designation or tax-exempt status under Internal Revenue Code Section 170(c)(1) is required for proof of fiscal sponsorship. For details on how to become fiscally sponsored, please visit Dance.NYC.

Priority in grant selection will be given to applicants who demonstrate to a review panel:

- Above all, artistic excellence and potential to benefit from a residency;
- A central role for dance artists living with SCI (only applicable for the Craig H. Neilsen Foundation application);
- A commitment to justice, equity, and inclusion. The review panel will consider the role that historically marginalized groups—including disabled, African, Latina/o/x, Asian, Arab, and Native American (ALAANA), and immigrant artists—play within the applicant pool and wider dance field. For information on Dance/NYC's values and commitments on justice, equity, and inclusion, please visit Dance.NYC/equity/values; and
- Diversity of participant types and perspectives.

The program's goals are artistic, and applicants with primarily therapeutic or educational goals will not be competitive.
