

JUNIOR COMMITTEE

About Member Bios JComm Blog Apply

Friday, February 22, 2019

Language and Race - Resource List

By Nadia Khayrallah

Share | Print | Download

As part of our Symposium Session "Words We Use to Talk About Race," we are collecting a list of resources that have been mentioned or could further inform our conversation on race and language. To add to this growing and evolving list, email WordsWeUseToTalkAboutRace@gmail.com!

From Charmian Wells:

"Diversity is a White Word"

"Strong and Wrong: On Ignorance and Modes of White Spectatorship in Dance Criticism"

"Women's March Roiled by Accusations of Anti-Semitism"

On Being Included: Racism and Diversity in Institutional Life

From Danielle Iwata:

"The Problem of 'Culturally Specific' Dance: The Search for a Critical Multiculturalism in Dance"

From Nadia Khayrallah:

"Middle Eastern" ≠ "Arab" - Why That Matters \(and more\)"

"UC to include Southwest Asian, North African category on next year's undergraduate application" \(2013\)

"Before Asians Were Called Yellow, They Were Called White"

A Record of Court Cases in The Construction of US "Whiteness"

Are Iranians People of Color? Persian, Muslim, and Model Minority Race Politics

< back

previous listing • next listing

Sign up for Dance/NYC News